The Dock

The Dock is an award winning cafe come restaurant that boasts a menu packed with the very best food which is locally sourced and created and served by talented staff in a relaxed, friendly and informal setting.

The Dock is at the heart of Plymouth's Coastal Quarter, and with floor to ceiling windows and balconies the vista is truly exceptional.

With outstanding food coupled with great service and a relaxed environment; it really is the perfect place to sit back and soak up Plymouth's charm.

The Dock is the ideal place to take a break for those enjoying a day out on the coast, and for families, friends and couples to indulge in an informal breakfast, lunch or dinner, any day of the week.

KUKU

The essence of Japanese cuisine is the ingredients; at KUKU we prepare our dishes using innovative food combinations, combining local seasonal ingredients; crossing boundaries by pairing traditional Japanese offerings with new and refreshing flavours and texture.

KUKU pulls its personality from a scattered set of influences to create a simple yet alluring dining experience. Set in a Grade II listed building, just seconds away from the bustle of Plymouth's city centre;

KUKU offers the perfect sanctuary for both the casual and professional Japanese food enthusiasts.

You can grab a seat at the hand crafted maple sushi-bar, as the chefs work before your eyes creating and serving exceptional dishes served in their purest form. The concept may be simple – but at KUKU, all eyes are on the plate.

Bistro Pierre's

Located in the impressive surroundings of Plymouth's Royal William Yard, Bistrot Pierre is a relaxed and friendly bistro and a place to go for any occasion. Bistrot Pierre's 'raison d'être' is great value French cooking and seasonal menus. They combine French bistro classics such as steak-frites, boeuf bourguignon and tarte au citron with their own take on regional favourites like confit de canard and paté de campagne.

The bistro is situated in the New Cooperage building which opens up onto a large outdoor terrace with seating. This overlooks a magnificent lawn, upon which a local farmers' market takes place on the first Sunday of every month.

In 2018, we opened rooms by Bistrot Pierre in Residence one, a beautiful Grade II listed Admirals house which is just across the green from our bistro.

Rockfish

You can't visit the seaside and not eat Seafood! Rockfish is a relaxed place to enjoy some great fish and shellfish. Quality and freshness are key to us. It is no accident that our restaurants are located close to the finest fish markets in the country, the mornings catches of prime fish and shellfish are on your plate that very same day. That's why we say "tomorrow's fish are still in the sea".

Rockfish in Plymouth is situated between the Plymouth Fish Market and the National Marine Aquarium, the perfect location for a family seafood restaurant! Our menu allows flexible dining, for those looking for just a plate of our award winning fish and chips with the family or those looking for a seafood feast!

New for summer 2021, we've opened up a new spacious new outside deck area with a Salcombe brewery bar and a covered marquee with bunting and festoon lights. We have some fun low key music events lined up for the summer too so it's a beautiful spot to enjoy fresh seafood over the water and catch up on happy reunions with friends and family outside. Our restaurant crews at Rockfish are dedicated to giving you a great experience and look forward to welcoming you.

The Hook & Line

At The Hook & Line you will discover a quirky, rustic interior with bench seating and, true to the city's naval roots, Plymouth's first speciality Rum Bar.

There's a specially selected wine list, Perrier Jouët champagne, cocktails and you can enjoy The Hook & Line's very own signature ale, the Hook, Line & Sinkers.

From breakfast to evening, the menu is simple and delicious, with specials chalked onto the wall.

Expect fresh pastries and great coffee for breakfast, served from 8 to 11am. From day to night, The Hook & Line will serve a mix of the freshest seafood delights, caught by local fishing boats, from mackerel paté on toasted artisan bread and fish or veggie tacos, to pan fried scallops, lobster and fries and traditional fish and chips.

Look out for events at The Hook & Line, from regular live acoustic sets and quiz nights, to Cook Your Catch experiences and flower arranging sessions, the venue offers something for everyone and is a great addition to the Royal William Yard community.
