Top 5 things to do!

- Enjoy a bird's eye view of Plymouth
Enjoy a ride on Plymouth's own version of the London Eye. Plymouth's 60metre high big wheel has 42 air conditioned capsules and at twice the height of Smeaton's Tower, offers unrivalled 360 degree views of our vibrant waterfront city. The Wheel of Plymouth will be open until 30 September 2011, adult tickets are priced at £7.50, concessions are available. Email plymouth@greatcityattractions.com for further details.
- See the America's Cup on our famous waterfront
In Plymouth we are blessed with huge swathes of green space in the city. Much of it connected to our beautiful waterfront. And in September you can catch the action in one of the events of the year. The America's Cup world series with the best sailors in the world going head to head in the worlds fastest sailing boats on a course around Plymouth Sound.
- Love life through a lens
The super snappers from FotoNow are bringing photography to the heart of the city in May when the Camper Obscura comes to town to launch a new piece of work showcasing the photography of Plymouth people. They need you and your pictures, so grab your camera and get going. Find out more at www.fotonow.org
- Get ready to Ooooh and Aaaaah
One of the undoubted highlights of the Plymouth calendar is the annual fireworks championships. Grab a spot on the Hoe, on Jennycliff or take a boat out on the Sound to witness the best of the best battle it out for the British title.
- Take a dip in Tinside Lido
Plymouth's fabulous art deco lido on the Hoe opens for the summer season at the end of May, so don your swimsuit and your swimming cap and get down there for swimming, 1930s style! What's more, this summer the lovely folk at Plymouth City Council are giving everyone FREE admission all summer! From 25 July to 4 September the pool opens at 10am. For more info on Tinside visit www.plymouth.gov.uk

City Centre Shopping

As the region's premier shopping destination, Plymouth has an unrivalled range of department stores, big brands and high street names combined with a thriving and fascinating mixture of independent retailers.

The Drake Circus shopping centre, opened in 2006, is a focal point for retail therapy housing some of the biggest brands in fashion, furnishing and entertainment including Top Shop, Zara, H&M, Coast, HMV and River Island. Drake Circus complements perfectly the huge range of top names and long-established department stores in the city centre including Marks and Spencer, Debenhams, House of Fraser and BHS.

From fresh fish to footwear and fashion, you'll find it all in Plymouth. Make a day of it, relax in one of our many pavement cafés and watch the world go by...and you're only a short walk from the fabulous vistas from Plymouth Hoe or the history filled cobbled streets of the Barbican, where art galleries and unique gift shops await you.
