BARBICAN WHARVES HUB

Ferry • Bus • Car parks • Coach

It's really easy to get around Plymouth - with much of the city easily walkable, plus scenic bus, cycling and water taxi routes. Explore the city by water with ferries and water taxis throughout the year connecting the Barbican Wharves Hub with Mount Batten and the Royal William Yard, as well as Mount Edgcumbe and Cawsand in Cornwall.

Find out more about the Plymouth City Bus Network at www.plymouthbus.co.uk

P There are two main car parks in easy reach of both the Barbican and The Hoe, the Elphinstone car park on Madeira Road and the Lambhay Hill car park. A short walk away, the Lockyer's Quay and Harbour car parks are just across the Lock and Pedestrian Footway, and the nearby Exchange Street car park is situated off Vauxhall Street. There is also plenty of street parking on Hoe Road running alongside the waterfront and along Citadel Road's adjacent streets. Just a 10 minutes walk away, Plymouth's City Centre is home to the larger multi storey car parks including Drake Circus with over 1200 spaces, the Theatre Royal, Regent Street, Civic Centre and Derry's Cross.

BUS The 25 bus travels from Royal Parade in Plymouth City Centre and stops at the Barbican, Sutton Harbour and Plymouth Hoe in less than 10 minutes. At busy times it can be worth parking in the City Centre and catching this service as it leaves from the A16 bus stop, outside House of Fraser.

Please note: We welcome everyone aboard our boats, however there are steps to negotiate at all our destinations. If you require assistance, please contact the relevant operators directly before you travel.

RIVER AND HARBOUR CRUISES (LIGHT BLUE ROUTE)

Plymouth
Britain's Ocean City

EXPLORE BRITAIN'S OCEAN CITY BY WATER

With a rich maritime heritage and a hand in some of Britain's most famous events, a city as steeped in history as Plymouth, has many stories to tell. It is Britain's Ocean City, a lively and authentic waterfront community, with a distinctly European feel, created by the many marinas, restaurants, alfresco pavement cafés and waterfront bars, historic buildings and the strong modernist architecture that lines the City's central boulevard, Armada Way.

As a city with the sea at its heart, take the opportunity to step aboard Plymouth's Waterlinks to create your perfect day out enjoying the stunning coastline scenery whilst exploring local and nearby attractions. You are spoilt for choice.

Mount Batten

For those looking to enjoy adventurous outdoor activities, this former RAF site is now home to the Mount Batten Watersports and Activities Centre and the 5 Gold Anchor marina, Plymouth Yacht Haven. Enjoy exploring the quaint village of Turnchapel and the Mount Batten peninsula, or take coastal walks to Jennycliff to be amazed by the cliff top views stretching for miles down the coast and across Plymouth Sound, and to Bovisand, an Area of Outstanding Beauty, offering sandy beaches. For a more relaxed visit, the Mount Batten Pub offers a warm welcome.

The Barbican & Sutton Harbour

The Barbican and Sutton Harbour is one of Plymouth's most popular places to visit, with quaint cobbled streets, a picturesque harbour and a wealth of independent shops, galleries, bars, cafés and restaurants along the water's edge. Here you can visit the UK's largest aquarium attraction at the National Marine Aquarium and the famous Plymouth Gin Distillery. Be the first to see the theatre stars of the future at the Barbican Theatre, and discover the latest independent cinema and art gallery at the nearby Plymouth Arts Centre. The Barbican is also home to the authentic Elizabethan House where you can step back in time to Drake's Plymouth, and to the Mayflower Steps which commemorate the departure of the Pilgrim Fathers who set sail on their voyage to the New World 1620. You can learn more about this historic voyage at the Mayflower Museum housed above the Barbican Tourist Information Centre.

The Hoe

As one of the most perfect natural harbours in the world, Plymouth Hoe on the City's stunning waterfront offers a large green space and breath-taking views across Plymouth Sound. Standing 72 feet high, the iconic Smeaton's Tower Lighthouse is situated here and offers fantastic views from its lantern room. The Hoe is a focal point for the city and the location for some of our biggest events including Armed Forces and the British Firework Championships. It is also home to the Royal Citadel, the City's war memorials, the Art Deco Tinside Lido and the famous green where Sir Francis Drake played bowls awaiting news of the Spanish Armada.

Royal William Yard & Devil's Point

Constructed in the 1800s as a Naval victualling yard, Plymouth's Royal William Yard is home to the largest collection of listed Naval buildings in Europe. This iconic setting on a stunning waterfront location is now a cultural hotspot for a fantastic range of art galleries, events, bars and restaurants, including Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall's River Cottage Canteen and French themed Le Bistrot Pierre.

Devil's Point offers one of the best views of Drake's Island and is the perfect place to observe the shipping lanes around the Waterfront.

Connecting Plymouth with Cornwall; residents and visitors alike can easily venture further aboard Plymouth Waterlinks.

An Idea For A Day Out

Starting at the Barbican Wharves Hub, take the ferry to Royal William Yard; from Royal William Yard, it's a short walk around to Admirals Hard to catch the Cremyll Ferry to Mount Edgcumbe. Then experience a stunning walk through the Mount Edgcumbe Country Park, which leads to Cawsand and Kingsand...maybe indulge in chips and a pint on the water's edge! Having enjoyed your adventures, pick up the Cawsand Ferry back to the Barbican Wharves Hub.

Please note: All ferry timings and services are weather and circumstances permitting. www.cawsandferry.co.uk for the latest information.

Cremyll and Mount Edgcumbe, Cornwall

Explore the beautiful village of Cremyll on the Rame Peninsula with its waterfront pub the Edgcumbe Arms and beach. Discover the magnificent Grade 1 Cornish gardens and famous historic house of Mount Edgcumbe House and Country Park, all set within 865 acres where you will see herds of wild deer, formal gardens and landscaped woodlands, historic buildings and enjoy breath-taking panoramic views of the coastline.

Cawsand, Cornwall

The small, historical fishing and once renowned smuggling twin villages of Cawsand and Kingsand on the Cornish Rame Peninsula offer secluded beaches, spectacular walks and magnificent scenery in this forgotten corner of Cornwall. Both villages are now part of Mount Edgcumbe Country Park. After the half hour crossing leaving from the Barbican Landing Stage, you can be sure of a warm welcome in the many pubs, restaurants, shops and cafés.

South West Coast Path / Waterfront Walkway

Covering 630 miles of coast from Minehead to Poole, the South West Coast Path National Trail leads you through diverse landscapes, all with their own unique story to tell. You can find out more and download hundreds of short and long walks from www.southwestcoastpath.com.
