ACCESS INFORMATION

Busy times - Plymouth Pirates Weekend is a hugely popular family event and is expected to attract thousands of visitors to the Barbican and Sutton Harbour during Saturday 7 and Sunday 8 May. However, we understand that some visitors may prefer to visit when there are fewer people around and if this is the case for you, the first hour of the event each day, between 10am and 11am tends to be a bit less busy.

INFORMATION POINTS

Please visit the Barbican Tourist Information Centre opposite the Mayflower Steps if you have any questions. There will also be stewards on hand to help at Plymouth Pirates Weekend. They will be wearing yellow high viz tabards so please ask them if you have any questions.

TRANSPORT

Free parking at Queen Anne's Battery for 2 hours subject to space. Please see www.plymouth.gov.uk/parkingandtravel for parking and travel information.
