

 PLYMOUTH
Britain's Ocean City

CITY MAP KEY

-  Barbican and Sutton Harbour
-  City Centre
-  Mount Batten
-  Parks and Recreation Areas
-  The Hoe and Seafront

-  Millbay
-  Royal William Yard
-  Parks and Recreation Areas
-  Pedestrianised Area

-  Tourist Information
-  Taxi Ranks
-  Public/Disabled Toilets
-  Beryl Cook Sculpture Trail

-  Monuments
-  Swimming Pools
-  Beryl e-bike Hire
-  Park and Ride Stops

-  Cycle Routes
-  Mayflower Trail
-  South West Coast Path National Trail
-  Sutton Harbour Trail

Welcome to Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City

Plymouth Hoe

Where the city meets the sea, this is space to pause and look out. Climb Smeaton's Tower for sweeping views across Plymouth Sound National Marine Park to South Devon and Cornwall. Enjoy the many cafes and restaurants, walk part of the South West Coast Path National Trail, cool off in the art deco Tinside Lido or simply stretch out on the grass and watch the water.

Pause, play and take in the views

The Barbican and Sutton Harbour

Browse independent shops and galleries, call into cafés and pubs, or head to the National Marine Aquarium and the water itself for a different view of the city. Cobbled streets, a working harbour and layers of history all in one place, where you can walk in the footsteps of pioneering explorers such as Darwin, Cook, Drake and the Mayflower Pilgrims.

Explore where history meets the sea

Plymouth City Centre

Big brands meet independents in the heart of the city. Drop into Drake Circus for shopping, head to The Barcode for entertainment, then explore the West End and Plymouth Market for local flavour and independents. Stop by The Box for culture, art and heritage all in one place.

Eat, shop and make a day of it

Plan your visit →

Tourist Information Centre 01752 306330 | visitplymouth.co.uk
socials - visitplymouth | Scan the QR code to plan your adventure

 The Box
Plymouth

Museum
Gallery
Archive

Where art, people
and stories come to life

FREE ENTRY
Open 10am-5pm
Tuesday-Sunday

theboxplymouth.com

Royal William Yard

Where Plymouth's naval past meets award-winning design—a vibrant waterfront destination to eat, shop, relax and play.

royalwilliamyard.com

