

THE PARADE

- Pirate Meet & Greet
- Giant Octopus Soft Play Area (entry fee applies)
- The Bounty Project – following the success of the major Channel 4 series, Mutiny, professional yachtsman Conrad Humphreys will be on hand to talk about the project. The Bounty Project was set up so that young people could experience the incredible history of Captain Bligh and his remarkable voyages
- Radio Plymouth - fun & games and pirate tattoos
- National Marine Aquarium - Marina the Mermaid will be welcomed ashore for story time and artefact exploring. Interactive stand where all aged Pirates are welcome to explore some of the wonders of our Ocean
- On Course South West - a range of ocean themed, fun and creative educational activities for the whole family
- Swashbuckling school - learn to fight with a pirate sword and board enemy ships! 10am, 12 noon, 1pm, 3pm
- Ships Surgeon - learn all about the pirate medical techniques, disease, and illnesses that pirate crews had to deal with. 11am & 2pm
- Pirate Coin Making - Turn your ill-gotten silver into pieces of eight, with an interactive coin strike

TOURIST INFORMATION CENTRE

- Pirate Show – starring Betty Blades and Pirate Pendogger - 12.15pm & 1.45pm
- Melody the Mermaid – 1.30pm to 4pm
Sat 11 May – Mermaid School Craft Activity, 'Wish in a Fish'
Sun 12 May – Mermaid School, songs and storytelling
- Make your own Pirate treasure map. £2.72 per child, advance booking advisable: piratesweekend.eventbrite.co.uk 10am to 11am and 11.30am to 12.30pm

SOUTHSIDE STREET

- Pirate Selfie Statue – take advantage of a great photo opportunity at the entrance of Southside Street
- Pirate Meet & Greet – the extremely popular Pirates of the Caribbean, Jack Sparrow impersonator will be mingling with the crowds. Jack will be accompanied by his arch enemy Captain Barbossa, just stand back and watch the two pit their wits!
- Melody The Mermaid Meet And Greet – 10am to 12.30pm
- Pirate Stiltwalking – Will be roaming the streets with their amazing juggling tricks, 10.30am
- Madame Galleon was once the figurehead on one of the most infamous Pirate ships ever to sail the open seas. Now brought to life she will be wandering the streets of The Barbican, 11.30am, 1pm, 2.30pm
- Musical Sea Tunes, 3pm
- Plymouth Morris Men, 2pm (Sun only)

WEST HOE PARK

- Visit the Pirate-themed Treasure Island Fun Park – trampolines, adventure golf, face painter, Plymouth Party Princesses, The Creation Station and bumper boats

PIRATE TRAIL

Sponsored by Sutton Harbour Group

- Collect your trail and activity leaflet from The Barbican Tourist Information Centre
- Use the co-ordinates on your map to discover the names of the 10 Most Wanted Pirates in Plymouth. There is a prize for everyone who finds all 10 names. You can then enter a draw to win some Pirate Lego
- Cost is £2 per child. Includes free gift on completion

COMMERCIAL WHARF

- Join the Mount Batten Pirates on a 30 minute Powerboat Experience during the Plymouth Pirates Weekend and see the Hoe, Drake's Island and Plymouth Sound from a Powerboat! £7.50 per person or a family of four for £25. Minimum ages 8+. All under-16s must be accompanied. Please note Pirate Powerboat Experiences will depart from the Barbican Landing Stage but you must book online in advance at www.mount-batten-centre.com/ahoy-me-hearties-2019/ or register first with the team based outside the Tourist Information Centre. Buoyancy aids and spray tops provided

SAILING SESSIONS

- Plymouth and Devon Schools Sailing Association (PDSSA) will be running free 30-minute sailing sessions on the hour, every hour from their boathouse on Commercial Wharf. Places are limited and will need to be booked in advance on the day. Buoyance aids will be provided (size dependent)

VISITPLYMOUTH.CO.UK

TWITTER: @PLYMOUTHPIRATES | @WHATSONPLYMOUTH

WHATSONPLYMOUTH

All programme details subject to change
Please see visitplymouth.co.uk for the latest information

SUTTON HARBOUR

SUTTON HARBOUR GROUP

Plymouth
Britain's Ocean City

PIRATES WEEKEND
PLYMOUTH

11 & 12 MAY 2019
— 10AM - 4PM —

THE BEST FAMILY PIRATES WEEKEND IN THE SOUTH WEST

THE BARBICAN, SUTTON HARBOUR AND WEST HOE PARK

AWARD WINNING & UNMISSABLE

PIRATES ENTERTAINMENT

KEY

- Harbour Heritage Trail
- Waterfront Walkway
- Car Park
- Toilet
- Bus Stop: Route 25, Hoe Waterfront
- Tourist Information Centre
- First Aid
- Activity Area

QUAY SQUARE, SUTTON HARBOUR

10.00am-4.00pm (unless stated)

LAZY JACKS

- 2 Tall Ships - The Grayhound and The Phoenix. Free to board
- Punch and Judy Pirate-themed shows
10.30am, 12.30pm & 2.30pm
- Pirate badge making
- Pirate arts and crafts
- Society of King George III displays and re-enactments
- Cannon and Musket firing - 11.45am, 1.45pm and 3.30pm
- Pirate Storytelling and music - 10am, 12 noon and 2pm
- New for this year - The Drake Corps of Drums will lead the children's Pirate Parade, sponsored by Lazy Jacks, through the streets of The Barbican. All young participants dressed as pirates will be given a pirate gift. 3.45pm depart

SHANTY SINGING

Join in some rousing Shanty singing throughout the weekend

Time	Saturday 11 May	Sunday 12 May
CAPTAIN JASPERS
11am	Tavy Tars	The Old Gaffers
1pm	Pirates of St Piran	Chudleigh Shantymen
3pm	The Old Gaffers	The Old Grumpies
THE GRAYHOUND TALL SHIP
10.30am	Mariners Away	TBC
12.30pm	Tavy Tars	The Old Gaffers
2.30pm	Pirates of St Piran	Chudleigh Shantymen
SOUTHSIDE STREET - WEST
11am	The Old Gaffers	The Old Grumpies
1pm	Mariners Away	TBC
3pm	Tavy Tars	The Old Gaffers
SOUTHSIDE STREET - EAST
10.30am	Pirates of St Piran	Chudleigh Shantymen
12.30pm	The Old Gaffers	The Old Grumpies
2.30pm	Mariners Away	TBC