TRANSPORT INFORMATION

This year we're expanding our sustainable travel options to include a Shark and Ride which will cover all land-based stops between The Barbican and Royal William Yard. To help reach the new extended areas of Seafest we're also offering subsidised ferry trips, subject to availability, between Mount Batten and The Barbican and onto Royal William Yard and Mount Edgcumbe.

SHARK AND RIDE

Please see Visit Plymouth website for more information.

FERRIES

Please see Plymouth Sound National Marine Park website for more information.

ACCESS INFORMATION

CHILL OUT ZONE

Take some time out in the garden area at the entrance to Basket Ope, where you'll be able to soak in the sounds of Seafest while relaxing away from the hustle and bustle.

INFORMATION POINTS

Please visit the Tourist Information Centre opposite the Mayflower Steps. Stewards will be on hand to help at Seafest. They will be wearing yellow high viz jackets.

WHAT'S ON WHERE at a glance

THE PARADE

An array of stalls selling tasty fresh dishes will line the streets of The Parade, plus a wide range of delicious delights and gifts to take away. The festival's resident artist, Debby Mason, will be returning with more of her beautiful sea themed prints for sale, and children will love the sea themed face painting from 10am to 4pm.

QUAY SQUARE

Discover the fantastic fish display from Plymouth Fishing & Seafood Association in the demo marquee and look out for the auction at 4pm each day.

Enjoy more FREE family fun, shell painting, colouring activities and an Ocean Explorer walking trail to seek out 10 beautiful illustrations by Debby Mason, from across the Barbican.

OPPOSITE TOURIST INFORMATION CENTRE

Learn about the amazing work of The Rock Pool Project at Seafest connecting people of all ages and backgrounds to the incredible wildlife found around our coastline.

WEST PIER

Enjoy live music on the sound stage throughout the weekend with cool refreshments provided by Venton's Devon Cyder.

COMMERCIAL WHARF

Enter your dog into the Gables Seafest Dog Show, taking place on 15 September at 3pm. Pre-register at the Gables gazebo on Commercial Wharf or you can also enter at the dog show ring as classes are called. Entry £2 per class per dog.

WEST HOE

Visit the Plymouth Fishing & Seafood Association (PFSA) gazebo outside the Waterfront pub for cooking demonstrations throughout the weekend.

For more information see the Visit Plymouth website.

WHAT'S ON WHERE at a glance

TINSIDE LIDO & WEST HOE

Join Tinside Lido for their end of season celebration with free swims and doggy paddles and many more exciting bookable experiences. Over at West Hoe join the 1000 Tyres project for marine cleans and find out more about the history that lies within Plymouth Sound National Marine Park seabed.

ROYAL WILLIAM YARD

From family craft activities to art walk-and-talk tours, slam poetry performances, live music and stand-up paddleboarding, there are lots of exciting sea themed activities for everyone to enjoy.

MOUNT BATTEN PENINSULA

Make a splash this Seafest with one of the exciting taster sessions on offer at Mount Batten Watersports and Activities Centre or climb aboard
the Bounty for a memorable sailing experience (Saturday 14 September, booking required). Also open for exploration is the 17th Century Mount Batten Tower which will be free to visit on Sun 15 September.

MOUNT EDGCUMBE

Explore the formal gardens, ancient barrows, mystical woodland, forts and chapels that make up Mount Edgcumbe or book one of the free House Tours available on Sun 15 September.
